

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

—It is not always easy for the man behind to cover his tracks.

—Permit me to opportunity to pass to boost the locality in which your lot is cast.

—Idella Greenamyer of Sebring has sued her husband, W. J. Greenamyer, for a divorce, alleging neglect and cruelty.

—Newtown Falls citizens have started a movement to secure a Y. M. C. A., the project meeting with much encouragement.

—Mrs. Lucy Diver, 91 years old, died Tuesday at her home in Beloit.

Funeral services were held Thursday, the remains being taken to Deerfield for burial.

—Talk is again revived of extending the Erie railroad from Lisbon through to Pittsburg. Last week agents were in southern Columbiana county seeking to secure options on land supposed to be for right of way.

—What is known as the old McKinley furnace and foundry near Lisbon are being torn away. This furnace was built by Gideon Hughes in 1808 and was the first iron plant to be established west of the Allegheny mountains.

—G. O. Calvin and E. I. Roller have recently completed two of the finest country homes in Green township. Both houses are of modern architecture and their finish, lighting, heating and water conveniences make them as comfortable as they are beautiful.

—Mrs. Owen Craver died in Fowler township last Friday. Deceased was a native of Lordstown and 77 years of age. She is survived by her husband and several children, one of whom is Mayor Z. F. Craver of Warren. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon.

—Kent Courier: J. M. Hickman, the veteran member of the Courier force, and one of the oldest types in the country, being engaged in the work almost 60 years, was 75 years of age Monday. He's always on the job and looks good for another quarter of a century or more.

—M. J. Crowe, who died in Niles last week Thursday morning of Bright's disease, was 49 years of age and had resided in Niles for 38 years. He was a member of the C. M. B. A. O. E. K. of E. Eagles and Elks. A funeral was held at St. Stephen's church Monday morning.

—The last Columbiana county grand jury recommended that a new court house be built and that the present court house be taken for a jail. The old prison has been condemned by grand juries for a score of years but every time the question of a new jail has been submitted to voters it has been voted down.

—Practical jokers in Ellsworth are said to have sawed a plank over a small stream some time since and when a citizen walked across it he was plunged into the water waist deep, at the same time striking the back of his head on the plank. Now it is said he has retained a lawyer, is looking for evidence and proposes to prosecute the jokers.

—The Butler and Goshen Township Insurance Co. suffered no losses last year, hence had no assessments to make. During the past year the company increased its business from $40,000 to $50,000. At a meeting of the company Thos. E. Crawford was elected president; E. E. Walker, secretary; J. B. Jones, treasurer. L. W. Atkinson and Joseph Hall composed the other members of the board of directors.

—Chagrin Falls is the market place for new product of the maple syrup industry of this section and has the goods for sale in both syrup and sugar although it is very early in the season. It all happened on account of the warm weather of last week and the wide awake sugar makers in this section. J. D. Robbins who lives west of town tapped on Monday of last week, hanging 200 buckets and after throwing away some sap which contained rain water, made 12 gallons of syrup which he sold for $1.10 per gallon. Sap ran four days. George Lippert of Ambur also tapped, making 14 gallons of syrup—Exponent.

—Salem News: Several properties in Lestonia have been purchased recently by interests of the Lelsey Brewing company of Cleveland, in anticipation of the town, and county, being voted wet at the next election. It is understood, also, that the same interests have holdings on local property and that several saloons will be started in different places throughout Columbiana county in the event that there is a turn in the temperance sentiment of this county. Former saloonists engaged in the business in Salem are preparing to open saloons just as soon as possible after the city becomes wet, if such is the case at another election. The building occupied by Lape's restaurant in this city is said to have been selected as one of the points for a new modern cafe in the event that Salem votes "wet."

—A special from Youngstown says: Judge D. F. Griffith of the probate court is the first candidate in the field for the republican nomination for member of congress from the eighteenth district in 1912. Judge Griffith it is learned, has his candidacy under consideration and is almost certain to enter the race. The eighteenth district boundary lines are likely to be changed at the present session of the legislature as the district has almost twice the required population. Regardless of how the re-districting is done Judge Griffith will likely be a candidate, and one who has already shown his strength in several hard fought contests. Stark county will almost certainly be detached from Mahoning when the district lines are changed. Mahoning county will be coupled with Columbiana county or with Trumbull and Ashtabula or Trumbull and Portage counties in a new district. In either event this county will cast a big percentage of the votes at the congressional primary in 1912.

WANTED FARMS

We have good demand for farms of from 20 to 50 acres with buildings, within 15 miles of Youngstown. If you have such farms for sale and the price is right, we can sell them for you in less than ninety days. Call on or address The Wilson Rowan Co., Canfield, O. Phone 38 and 79.
